Mary Ruth-
Ranny had a massive stroke on Sunday morning. She died Monday evening. Dot, Sue and I are here in Mary Etta Florida with Emily her daughter. We will be having a celebration of her life tomorrow afternoon. Ranny's wishes were to be an organ donor and to be cremated. It's is an experience to readjust your grieving to a different format.

I hope this finds you and yours well. Jeri (Keith) Austin

This book contains the important dates of the decendents of Ella Adeline Hendricks and Orrin Ometa Mitchem. If all births, deaths and marriages are likewise recorded it will be a good source of information for the next generation.

Each family is listed and then taken individually. Each family completed before the next started. Every one may have a different way of listing. It would be very easy to revise.

I have enjoyed collecting and compiling the information - and sure couldn't have done it without the help of a lot of people.

Enfield was first called Fresh Water Plantation and was a part of Massachusetts until 1749 when it was annexed to Connecticut. The name was changed to Enfield when the First Ecclesiastical Society and Church were organized in 1683. The first settled minister was "set apart for the work in 1699". The First Ecclesiastical Society was legally constituted in Connecticut in 1753. In 1770 the Second Society of Strict Congregationalists or Separates was established and continued as a distinct organization with the limits of the First Society until about 1843. In 1855 ninety-four members of the First Church requested to be dismissed that they might form the North or Second Church of Enfield. That organization existed for about twenty-three years.

THE MEACHAM FAMILY HISTORY.

How the Meacham Family came by the Name.

A descendant protests to the family historian that we are not English but Irish; and gives the following anecdote as a proof of his assertions:

"Long, long ago, centuries before anyone had a name, an Irish judge at a county fair in Lemerick was naming the people. Turning to one who he called O'Brian he asked, "Who's that man wid ye, O'Brian?"

O'Brian answered, "That's me chum, ye honor."

"Now, luk at that," exclaimed the judge, "luk at the sense arn that man, namin himself, widout watin fir me. To be sure now, he deserves another nam, and I'll give an distinction -- Mister McChum."

And that was the first title bestowed on the first Mechum and though the name has remained the same to this day, the spelling has been altered by adding one letter and changing another to Meachum and Meacham. Anyway the story is a good one.

If the Meachams ever didlive in Ireland they went to England and lived there centuries before my ancesters came to America.

The following Meacham history takes us back to the year 1613 in England. This is the first ancester we have a definite record of so I'll consider him the number one ancester in America.

There appears to have been but one colonial family of the name Meacham. Ir sprang from Jeremiah Meacham of Salem, Long Island. There were many versions of the name but the name Meacham is the historic spelling -- Meachum, Macham, Meatchem, Mechan, Mecon, Mucham, Meacom, Mashone, Krashoon, Meachem, Mechem and others.

Although the first official records of Jeremiah Meacham occur 1650 the family records and traditions exist that he was born 1613 inSomersetshire England and left there in 1630 as a lad of 17 years with the great fleet of Governors Winthrop, Wentworth and Dudley but under an assumed name and with two companions of the Hawkins family. Jeremiah was a weaver throughout his lifetime and may have been the "---- weaver" who is listed among the passengers of the fleet, particularly as the said "---- weaver" has no record in the published genealogies of the Weaver families. The tradition is traceable as having been told by Rebecca (Hawkins) Meacham, mother of Captain William Meacham who was killed at the Battle of Bunker Hill, 1776, and on down and was finally written in a letter as follows:

"The Meacham family came from the west of England, sometime about the year 1630. Governor Wentworth and Governor Dudley succeeded each other in the government of a colony who first settled at a place called by the Indians, "Naumkeag", now Salem, Massachusetts. Two families of Meachams came out with one of the governors." The letter goes on to say he thought they were single men and they called themselves Presbyterians from the English Episcopal Church. "That the Meachams now residing on the borders of Wales are among the ancient and honorable families on the west of England."

The very fact that Jeremiah Meacham was a weaver by trade would have made it very difficult for him to have secured a permit from the authorities to leave for the colonies.

"Feb. 1, 1653. It is order yt ther shall bee an Invitacon sent to Goodman Meacham of Southold if hee will come and live and weave all the townes worke he shall come in free from all charges and the town will give him 5 pounds and breake him 2 ackers of aldn."

So the stories and records would lead us to believe that the first Meachams in America were weavers by trade.

From Salem he moved to S~~h~~outhhold, Long Island and in 1653 he moved to a new settlement in East Hampton, Long Island "to do the towns weaving" and it is to be noted in this connection that thereafter representatives of the Meacham family were in the woolen industry in many localities in colonial days.

For thirteen years thereafter, until 1666, the annals of Easthampton contain repeated references to the public and private activities of Jeremiah Meacham. He was a great friend of Rev. Thomas James who made him the administrator of his estate. He was a member of the Grand Jury. He built a fulling mill in 1675, Soon after his arrival in Salem his children began to marry-

Sarah in 1667
Hannah in 1669
Isaac in 1669
Bethia in 1672

and so the clans of Meachams were on their way.

His first wife was Margaret to whom much of the family success belonged. After her death, Jeremiah married Alice Douch. Jeremiah died at Salem, November 11, 1695, leaving a will dated April 12, 1694 and probated Nov. 18, 1695.

Copy -- "The Last Will and Testiment of Jeremiah Meacham - Salem 1694.

First, I wish that all debts and Dues as I owe in right or conscius ~~[illegible]~~ to any manner of person or persons whatsoever shall be well and truly payed.

(Note by Cloe Jenison -- Exact copy of will so far. I cannot finish as I must go to class, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York City. Writing in Genealogy Library, New York City, 1939. Remainder of will gives the information -- wife being dead he appoints his eldest son, Jeremiah, executor of his will to care for his second wife Alice and gave him all his fulling mills with lands and property. He must pay Isaac 20 shillings.)

Comment by Cloe Jenison after getting back out to college. The Bible says the sins of the fathers are visited unto the children in the third and forth generations. Here is a case where they go to the 9th. Dear great, great, ever so great grandfather Jeremiah I now know why I forget to use punctuation marks properly in my writings and if you hadn't taken so long to get yourself properly settled in your relation to Heaven, I would have gotten a the will copied. Anyway I'm glad you felt your soul was more impo tant than your wealth which you seemed to have had a plenty of. Your descendants certainly lost it along the way, especially comin over the Iowa prairies in the covered wagons.

Anyway, great, great, ever so great Grandpa Meacham I think you must have been a very smart man and thanks for coming to America and braving the trials and hardships of a new world. I love it here and I'm ever grateful to you though it doesn't seem to be written in the Book of Man that I pass on that gratitude to the coming generations of Meachams as you did. Perhaps I can breath upon a pen and it shall write on. I hope I shall see your England some day.

The II Generation in America.

Isaac Meacham, born 1645, No early record. Married at Salem, Mass., Dec. 25, 1669 to Deborah Browning, widow of John Perkins and daughter of Thomas Browning of Topsfield. Isaac was a weaver as his father Jeremiah. Thomas Browning died leaving his estate to his daughter. They moved to Enfield 1681. There he built in 1688 a fulling mill and pursued his occupation of weaver. The History of Enfield says that Capt. Isaac Meacham was one of the most useful and enterprising settlers of Enfield. He was influential in public affairs and represented the town as a member of the House of Representatives for Massachusetts 1707. Many references are made to the Meachams in Enfield. He died April 29, 1715.

12 children:

Deborah 1671-1671
Isaac 1672
Jeremiah 1674
Israet 1676
Ebenezer 1677
Ichabod 1679 (our ancestor)

Deborah 1681
John 1682
Mary 1684
Joseph 1685
Benjamin 1687
Ebenezer 1689

Note by C.J. - Evidently the Meachams in the 17th century had an important social life as well as money. Well, Great ever so great Grandpa Isaac I'll never be a representative, a millionaire, or a captain but I've owned a car and a tractor and have driven them and you didn't. You probably went to college, so did I. I earned mine, did you? Yours seemed to have taken you farther but money always talks. Anyway, I'd like to have known you for I have known representatives, senators, governors, and many professors. Wish I could have known how you got to be a captain.

The III Generation of Meachams in America.

Ichabod Meacham born in Salem, Mass. Aug 11, 1679. Went to live in Enfield where he died in 1766. He was a planter on a large estate.

11 children:

Isaac)   died young
Deborah) twin to Isaac, died
Keziah
Elizabeth
Isaac   ) 1716 (our ancester)
Deborah) twin to Isaac died at birth
Sarah
Mary
Icabod
John
Tamsin

Note by C.J. - Well, Great Grandpa Meacham guess you must be the beginning of the farming inheritance of the family. I just wonder what you planted so I looked it up in the geography. It could have been Tobacco, potatoes, cereal, hay, truck gardening, apples and dairy products. Guess you must have had cows then. I'm glad you were a farmer back there in Connecticut. Sort of makes me feel more of a kin to you for the love of the land and though Iowa is far from Connecticut, we must have had like interests so maybe I sort of took after you. One thing I can't understand about you why name two sets of twins the same names? But I suppose you had to have an Isaac to carry on the name. Too bad it finally had to die out.

The IV Generation of Meachams

Abraham 1753
Susanna 1756
John 1760 went to Warren, Mass.
Ichabod 1762

Children of second wife:
Lydia
Mollie

Note by C.J. - Dear great, great grandfather Isaac. I guess you were a farmer too. Anyway I see no titles before or after your name and no mention of riches but you did keep up the family tradition of having at least 10 children and naming one Isaac.

The V Generation of Meachams in America.

Isaac Meacham, born Dec. 25, 1748, Warren, Mass. Died 182 He was in Williamstown in 1775 when he enlisted in the Rev. War. Served in Capt. Samuel Clarks Company.

He married Lucy Standish, great grand daughter of Capt. Mil Standish of the Mayflower) on Sept. 20, 1776 and moved to Vermont with his brothers Jacob and Abraham. In 1790 he was living at Paw let Vermont. He finally moved to Sandy Creek, New York, where he died 1829. Also his wife, Lucy Standish died there Jan 13, 1840.

Children:
John, born 1777 moved to Pulaski, 5 miles from Sandy Creek.
Jabez (my ancester) born in Pawlet, Vermont, moved to Sandy Creek and Pulaski.
Isaac, born Feb. 13, 1791, fought in the War of 1812. settled in Middlebury, Ohio.
Thomas, born Feb. 16, 1794 at Pawlet. Died March 20, 1824 Richland, New York near Pulaski.

Note by C.J.

Lucy Standish (1758-1840) married Isaac Meacham 1776. She was the daughter of Thomas Standish, son of Samuel Standish, son of Josiah Standish, son of Captain Miles Standish a Mayflower Pilgrim of early colonial history and of Englan

Captain Miles Standish born in Lancoshire, England, being a Cadet it was said of the House of Standish with land possession at Duxbury, a town of the Parish of Standish in the County close to Wigan, 9 miles from Bolton and 20 miles northeast of Liverpool, England. He had been at Leyden som years before the Embargo of 1620. He brought nobody but Rose Standish, his wife with him to America. There were 10 in the company and 50 died the first winter and were buried on the hill overlooking the sea; a very short distance in fact only a few steps, from Plymouth Rock (it is now protected by an ornamental iron railing and a canopy.) Rose was among those that died. No stones were allowed to mark the graves because the remaining colonists were afraid if the Indians found out how few were left they would attack and destroy before another ship could come. John Alden was a very close friend of Miles and Rose as well as Priscilla. Miles was a man strong of body and mind in things of bravery and war but he was a man timid and of little courage with women. Miles wanted to marry Priscilla, but he was afraid to ask her so he asked John to speak to Priscilla for him. Priscilla told John to speak for himself. John did and they were married. Miles next wife, Barbara, came in the boat, The Ann, 1623, No account is left of how Miles got up the nerve to ask her but they were married and she was the mother of his children as named in his will of March 7, 1656. Alexander, Miles Josiah (our ancester) and Charles. He was constantly in public life and for 19 years was an asset to the colonly. He had a mission to London in 1623 where he could affect little because of the plague. He died 1656.

Note by C.J. - When Mother (Clara Meacham Jenison) and I visited in Pulaski and Sandy Creek in the summer of 1937 I placed roses on Lucy Standish Meacham's grave. We visited the graves of Capt. Miles Standish, his wife Barbara, and daughter who died young and is buried on the lot with the captain, at Duxbury, Mass. It is some distance back from the Standish home and the Standish Monument overlooking the ocean. It was not far from the Plymouth Rock.

The VI Generation of Meachams in America.

Jabez Meacham was born in Pawlet, Vermont, April 30, 1785, and moved to Pulaski, New York, and died Sept. 17, 1848. He married Susan Terrell (April 15, 1790 - May 9, 1862) on Sept. 10, 1809 He built the light house on Lake Ontario at the mouth of the Salmon River. (1838)

Note by C.J. - It was thought at the time that the place would become a great harbor on the lake but the plans were changed and Oswego became the important town and harbor. The lighthouse is a very picturesque place. Made of limestone and overgrown with ivy. It had not been used for two generations. Mother and I went out to see it several times with relatives and stood by the lighthouse watching the sun set over the land and lake. I had never seen as beautiful sunset before or have I since. The sun was an orangy red and made a like streak across the lake to where we stood and then seemed to disappear right into the water. The centennial of the lighthouse was celebrated in 1938. I was invited back for the celebration as one of the few known living descendents of Jabez Meacham the builder. Mother passed on in April before the celebration so I did not go. It was wonderful the pleasure she received in visiting the lighthouse and the homes and the scenes of her parents' youth.

The VII Generation of Meachams in America.

Alexander Hamilton Meacham born June 6, 1820, Sandy Creek, New York. Died Sept. 6, 1884, Belmond, Iowa, buried in Franklin Grove Cemetery, Belmond, Iowa.

Obituary:

"Death of A. H. Meacham.

The subject of this sketch was born 1820, in the state of New York, Oswego County, was married to his present wife, Henriett Ingersoll of the same county and state. During their entire life they lived in great harmoney and peace. From New York they emigrated to Illinois to what is now called Bloomingdale. Here they resided for 7 years engaged in tilling the soil. In the year 1866 the entire family, five in number, two girls and three boys, came to Belmond, 19 years ago, enduring the trials of frontier life. Eight children survive their father and are residents of Belmond and Pleasant Township.

Father Meacham was a good citizen and a kind neighbor and one of the best of fathers and husbands. In early life he gave his heart to God. The family Bible was his refuge and delight, but after coming to Belmond he seemed to slaken his religous course. Last winter his mind was seriously touched again and since that time he sought the throne of Grace. The writer of this short memoir believes he was under the influence of the Devine Spirit and notices a great seriousness in his conduct while engaged in family devotion.

On Friday the 5th, he remarked on coming from Belmond, that he would like to go to Chicago next week to see his friends and visit the Exposition, saying at the same time he expected to be called off any moment and hoped when he did he should not be allowed to suffer.

His wife awakening, spoke to him and receiving no response. On lighting a light she heard a slight gurgle and he was gone. The writer prays that this bereavement may be sanctified to the afflicted family."

This was written by Father Sands, pastor of the Congregational Church.

HISTORY OF BULL FAMILY IN AMERICA.

Abraham Bull, father of our Martha Bull Ingersoll and our Rebecca Bull - Bishop Fox. Abraham was born in 1738 and died Sept. 13th, 1820. Buried in Riverside Cemetery, Pulaske, N.Y. Abigail Bull, his wife, born in 1738, died Feb. 28, 1821.

Children:

Martha	born 1761	married John Ingersoll (our ancester)
Ruth		married Aaron Cass
Desire		married Hohn French
Abraham		married Abigail Lake and Susan Guermsey
Johnson		married Nancy Brown
Benjamin		married Sarah Sowiles
Rebecca		married Aaron DePuy and Thomas Bishop and Justus B. Fox
Abigail		married Reuben Bates
Aaron		married Mary Krun

Martha Bull and John Ingersoll were my great, great grandparents and lived two miles from Pulaski, east side of Salmon River. I saw the trees on the site of the old home (June 27, 1927) We saw the old well on the great grandfather farm near the other farm, 2 miles from Pulaske - Benjamin Ingersol and Hannah Wolcott.

Extracts from a letter from Bessie E. Swart Waitrowske, Angola, N.Y. (a cousin) states that she has proof that the Bull line of our ancesters are from the same family as Queen Elizabeth.

Revolutionary war ancesters are John Ingersoll, Abraham Bull, William Wolcott.

Bull's Bridge is in Western part of Connecticut on Housatonic River very close to New York state line. It is in the town of Kent about half way between villages of Kent and New Milford. It is now only a four corners but when the iron mills were running it was a flourishing hamlet as two hundred men were employed at the forge. It is a Picturesque old covered bridge, built by our ancesters. In those days it was an important bridge as it was the main road from Newburgh on the Hudson to Hartford. Today it is a dirt road and very little traveled. It was a turnpike built by the Bulls, descendents of the family still live there. An old house standing near the bridge was built about 1670 by the Bull ancestors.

Isaac Bull married Rebecca Browning in S. Kingston, R.E. in 1731. They were Quakers and moved into Dutchess County with others of their faith. They settled on the narrow stripe along the Connecticut line known as the Oblong and attended the famous old Oblong Quaker Church.

The following record of the family is in the records of this old church:

John born 1732
Joub born 1735
Thomas born 1737
Abraham born March 9, 1740 (our ancester)
Martha born 1743
Isaac born 1746
Mary born 1748
Rebecca born 1751
Ester born 1754
Child born 1757

Dear James,

I found your name in the MEACHAM HERITAGE BOOK which I recently purchased, and I decided to write to you. My hobby is genealogy, and I am contacting you in hopes that some of your ancestors may be those Iam missing in my own family tree. If you know anything about your roots, please fill in all you can on the chart I am enclosing, and send it back to me. Even if you only know your ancestors back for a couple of generations, please fill in as much as you can, as it will be of help to me.

I am in my eighties and have lots of time to devote to my hobby. I realize you may be busy, or even uninterested, but I would certainly be pleased to hear from you if you can manage it. In some cases I would be able to trace your lineage back to Jeremiah Meacham, born in 1613 in England, who is my first ancestor in America. If I can do this, I will send you a copy.

I personally have found this to be very interesting and rewarding hobby. Somehow it is comforting in these uncertain times, to be able to look back on a long line of ancestors- as well as a widely- branching tree of present day relatives, some known to me, and some as yet unknown. I look forward with great interest to your reply.

Your friend, Burton.

Aethelstan, Aelfred, Aethelred, sober kings and true, spent their lives pruning their spear-hedges in continuous campaigns of defense. Mounds that had served the Stone-Age men, the Britons, and the Romans in turn, were again used as barriers against the invading marauders. Peace approached on belated pinions.

'Missionaries had arrived from Rome; the Barbarians were gradually won over to baptism and to lip-service of the Lord, His Risen Son, the Virgin Mother and the Holy Saints. Church towers bore aloft the Sign of the Cross. Ecclestiastical architecture of the Perpendicular type dominated the towns. But Wyrd, unconquered, brooding, nursing its monsters in the hearts of the landfolk, smile grimly through it all. The Dukes of Normandy, having vanquished the last of the Saxon monarchs, imposed their feudal lordship over the country.''' (''The Life of Thomas Hardy,'' by Ernest Brennecke, Jr.)

ORIGIN OF MEACHAM FAMILY

Mrs. Mecham deals more specifically with the Meacham family as the article proceeds when she quoted J. Arthur Meacham who presided over the family central organization in the 1940's and early 1950's. His statement found in DeVon's book on page 81 speaks of the origin of the Meacham family:

'It is suggested by one historian that the progenitor, or progenitors, of the English family which came to be known as Meacham came to England with William the Conqueror from French Normandy in 1066 A.D. and the name was then Meachampe. I have not yet been able to verify this story, but it is reasonable and the name in the original spelling still persists among descendants of early immigrants to America, both from France and England, who settled in our southern states.'

Quoting further from Lillie Dunford Mecham's article we have this interesting statement under the title ''The Mecham Family Comes to America.''

''Idah Meacham Strobridge, noted western historian and genealogist and descendent of Jeremiah Meacham, in her manuscripts designates the various family groups who settled in America into four general classifications.

''First: Descendants of Jeremiah Meacham who came to America between the years 1630 and 1642, who have, with one notable exception shown below, maintained the original spelling of the surname as Meacham.

''Second: Two other branches who came from England later than Jeremiah, including the quaker Branch who came in 1702, all spell their surname Mechem.

''Third: Later emigrants spell the surname Meachem.

''Fourth: Descendants of Samuel Meacham and Phebe Main, who later joined the 'Mormon Church.' (This Samuel was the great grandson of Jeremiah the first emigrant.)

''This 'Mormon' group have all spelled their name MECHAM. There is one big Exception to this rule and that is the descendants of Dr. Thomas Meacham, (a son of Samuel and Phebe Main Meacham) who even in the 'Mormon' factions have continued to spell the surname MEACHAM.

''Ida Meacham Strobridge makes this comment in this regard, (speaking and describing the sixteen children of Samuel and Phebe Main Meacham) ''The three sons, who joined the 'Mormon' Church and removed to Nauvoo, thence on to Utah, Joshua, Elam and Joseph, changed the spelling and pronunciation of the name and have almost created or originated a new family.'' (Mecham)

''Again quoting from Mrs. Strobridge, 'In the old records, though, where there was much lack of education among the scribes, I have found it (the surname) spelled in the most impossible ways you can immagine, namely: Macham, Machem, Meacham, Meachem, Meatchem, Meakin, Measham, Mesham, Mechem, Meachin, Meachen, Mecham, Mechan, Mechum, Mitcham, Mitchum etc., all of whom originated from the same family group either in America or in the old country.'''

ORIGIN OF MEACHAM NAME

A bit of tongue-in-cheek humor is injected at this time in relation to the origin of the Meacham name. "In her research Idah Meacham Strobridge came across an old card with the following printed on it; (Which no doubt has a legendary background)

'Long, long ago an Irish judge at a county fair in Limerick was naming the people. Turning to one whom he called 'O'Brien!' he asked, 'Who's that man wid ye, O'Brien?' and O'Brien answered, 'That's me chum, yer honor.' 'Now luk at that!' exclaimed the judge. 'Luk at the sinse av the man, namin' himself widout watin' f'r me! Sure, he desarves another wan, an' I'll give ut to um as a marruk av distinction — Mister Me-Chum.' In that way was the first title bestowed on the first Meacham. Though the name has remained the same to this day, the spelling has been altered by adding or dropping one letter or another until today we have many versions.'"

PRONUNCIATION OF NAME

We are then given insight on the Pronunciation of the Meacham, Mecham surname. Thus: "In general, there are two distinct ways of pronouncing the name Meacham regardless of how the surname may be spelled.

'First: The first syllable is made to rhyme with peach, making it pronounced "Meachum." This is the original method and maintained mainly by the same group who kept the original way of spelling the name as "Meacham." (The Dr. Thomas Meacham line).

'Second: The name is pronounced as if it were spelled "Me-Kum" or better still "Me-Come." Again its the "Mormon" faction of the family who spell the surname "Mecham" who use this pronunciation. However there are quite a large number of families who spell the name this way who pronounce it the first and original way.

'Today the family organization has virtually given up the hope of bringing all the factions back to one way of spelling and pronouncing the surname.'"

THE FAMILY COAT OF ARMS DESCRIBED

Referring to the family coat of Arms, Lillie Mecham gives us this information:

"The coat of arms anciently borne by the English family of Meacham is described in the heraldic terms as follows:

Arms — "Azure, on a fesse or, between three lions' heads, erased argent, as many escallops of the field."

Crest — "A falcon with wings expanded proper, belled on."

"The source of this information taken from Burke's Encyclopaedia of Heraldry, 1844. In DeVon's book a cut of the family coat of arms can be found on page 16, also on page 79 you can find a full page cut in color."

President J. Arthur Meacham states: "The Meacham coat of arms is among the oldest recorded in the College of Heraldry in London, England — thus placing the family among the old and honorable families of the British Isles."

Editor's Note: Also in DeVon Mecham's book beginning on page 16 and continuing on through page 32 many engravings of family coats of arms are shown.

Continuing Mrs. Mecham's account we read: "We are indebted to Ellen Anderson Mecham (genealogist for the Leonidas Clinton Mecham Branch of the family) for the greater part of the heraldry published in this (DeVon's) book."

Ellen wrote, 'Out of the Middle Ages and down through the centuries to the world of today comes the proud custom and the romantic tradition of the ancestral coat of arms.

'Devised in remote days of chivalry, borne by armed knights in tournaments and on ancient battlefields, cherished by illustrious forbears of ages past, and handed down from generation to generation as a sacred emblem of family honor, the coat of arms is an object of pride and distinction for its possessor today and an heirloom which generations of his descendants will treasure.'

Ellen Anderson Mecham continuing her comments on heraldry quoted further by Lilly Dunford Mecham, wrote: "The origin of heraldry may be traced back to the dawn of history... In colonial America, armorial bearing was handed down from generation to generation and the custom was by no means discarded when political ties with England were severed. Regarded as an emblem of family rather than of nationality, arms continued in common use during the Revolution. There are innumerable instances of officials high in American public life of the time who used their ancestral arms, seals, and signet rings. President George Washington displayed his family arms on his carriage, on his bookplate, and on the seal which he affixed to letters and papers, as did many others. These illustrious precedents sanction the use of coats of arms by Americans who are entitled to them.

"At the present time cultured Americans are revealing greater interest than ever before in family history, genealogical research, and the intimately related subject of heraldry. Genealogy and heraldry are now ignored only by those who have no ancestors of whom they can be proud. Love of ancestry is an instinct deep-rooted in man's nature. Pride of ancestry is an admirable trait, contributing to healthy self-respect and stirring ambition to add new honor to the family name. The thoughtful American of today takes sincere pride in a long line of distinguished descent and in the heraldic emblems which testify to the bravery, the achievement, and the honor of his forebears."

EARLY MEACHAM FAMILY HISTORY AND GENEALOGY DOCUMENTATION

To aid in documenting our own Moses Moroni Mecham family history we present the following on Jeremiah and Margaret Meacham quoted from Lillie Dunford Mecham's article; Page 82 and 83 in DeVon's book:

"The first official record of the Meacham family in America occurs in 1650 at which time Jeremiah Meacham was living at Southhold, Long Island, and in 1653 settled at East Hampton, L.I., 'to do the town's weaving.'

"Jeremiah Meacham returned to Salem in 1666. His first wife's name was Margaret; to this union were born the following children:

Isaac, born about 1642, married Deborah Browning; Jeremiah, born about 1644, his first wife was Mary Trask and his second was Deborah Browne; Sarah, married 4 Feb., 1667, to Joseph Boyce; Hannah, married 16 Feb., 1667, to William Gill; Bethia, born about 1650, her first husband was George Hacker and her second was John Darling; Rebecca, married Jan., 1675, to John Mecarter; and Rhoda, born about 1661 and married Samuel West.

"Margaret died during the year 1679 at Salem, Mass. Then Jeremiah married a widow Alice (nee Douch) Dane. Her father was Osman Douch and her first husband was Dr. John Dane. She died in May, 1704, at Salem, Mass.

"Jeremiah is believed to have been born in Somersetshire England 1613 or '14. He died November 11, 1696, at Salem, Mass. (The source of this information is from the New York Gen. and Biog. Mag. Vol. 65). This has been supplemented with later findings.

"Although the first official record of Jeremiah occurs in 1650, the seemingly authentic tradition exists that he left England between the years 1630 and 1642 with the great fleet of Governors Wentworth and Dudley, under an assumed name, and with two companions of the Hawkins family.

"Jeremiah was a weaver by trade through his lifetime and may have been the "Weaver" who is listed among the passengers of the Fleet, particularly as the said "Weaver" had no subsequent record and is not mentioned in any of the published genealogies of the Weaver families of Mass. or of New York.

"The (family) tradition is clearly traceable as has been told by Rebecca Hawkins Meacham, wife of Jeremiah Meacham (b. 1698) who was the son of John Meacham, who was the son of Jeremiah Meacham (b. 1644), who was the son of Jeremiah Meacham. (Our first ancestor in America)

"Rebecca Hawkins Meacham told her son Captain William Meacham, who was killed at the battle of Bunkerhill in 1776. Captain Meacham told his wife Sarah Cook Meacham, (later married Everest), who in turn, after many years repeated it from memory and with some errors, to her son William, who ultimately incorporated it in a letter to one of the sons of John Meacham a younger brother of his father, as follows:

'Port Henry, New York, Nov. 2, 1857

'The Meacham family came from the West of England sometime about the year 1630. Governor Wentworth, Gov. Dudley, Sir Richard Saltonstall, succeeded each other in the Government of a Colony who settled at a place called by the Indians Naumkeag, now Salem, Mass. Two families of Meacham Came out with one of these Governors, some one of the years between 1630-1642, with many other families and settled at Naumkeag (Salem) Mass.

'Whether these young men were married men at the time I know not. A family of Hawkins came out from England, County of Somerset, at the same time as the Meachams all from near the City of Bristol on the borders of Wales.

'My grandmother's name was Rebecca Hawkins, whether born in England or America, I do not know; but her parents were Welsh. My mother's name was Sarah Cook before her marriage, a descent out of the New Haven colony so called.

'The Meacham family now residing on the borders of Wales are amongst the ancient and honorable families in the West of England.

'In 1815 Robert Meacham Esq. was on the old Homestead. Had two sons in the Royal Guard, one a Captain William Meacham. The other Lieut. Jeremiah Meacham. And they were at the Battle of Plattenburg. From them I got this information after the Peace.

Signed, 'William Meacham'''

JEREMIAH II'S WILL AND RECORD OF HIS TWO WIVES AND CHILDREN

Editor's Note: After Mary Lovering Holman had examined the will of the first Jeremiah Mecham she began a study of the will of Jeremiah II, where she made a startling discovery and was able to correct a long time error which had come down through the Idah Meacham Strobridge records. Mrs. Strobridge had listed Jeremiah Meacham's first wife as Margaret which was correct. Then she showed their son Jeremiah II married to Mary Trask which was also correct, but an error had been made when she recorded Debra Browne as the wife of Jeremiah the Third. Mrs. Holman was able to prove that Debra Browne was the second wife of Jeremiah II. She verifies this through the listing of the children on the will of Jeremiah II, which is as follows:

CHILDREN BY MARY TRASK HIS FIRST WIFE:

1. Jeremiah, b. 21 Dec., 1673, married Freeloe Bliss
2. John, b. 1675, married Mary Cash
3. James, b. 1677, married Elizabeth Cue
4. Mary, b. 1680, probably died young.

CHILDREN BY DEBORAH BROWNE HIS SECOND WIFE:

5. Hester, b. 28 Sept., 1694, md. Hope Rogers 14 Nov., 1715

6. Joseph, b. 7 Dec., 1696, md. Elizabeth Lilly, 16 Jan., 1722
7. Hannah, b. 18 Feb., 1698, md. Amos Woodward
8. Margaret, b. 6 Jan., 1700, md. Jonathan Woodward
9. Daniel, b. 16 Apr., 1703, md. (1)Lydia Lille (mentioned in his will) — (2) Elizabeth
10. Deborah, b. 21 Mar., 1704, md. Thomas Butler (Wid.)
11. Sarah, b. 1707, unmarried in 1743
12. Lydia, b. 28 Nov., 1709, md. Daniel Sheppard
13. Samuel, b. 12 July, 1712, md. Bethia Pease
14. Benjamin b. 16 May, 1714
15. Rachel, b. 20 July, 1716, md. Ebenezer Woodward
16. Seth, b. 5 Oct., 1718, md. Ruth Simons

Children numbered 1 to 10 were all born in Salem, Mass. and children numbered 11 to 16 were all born at Windham, Conn.

This additional information was added in Lillie Mecham's article:

"Mary Trask was born August 14, 1652, at Salem, Mass., the daughter of Henry and Mary Southwick Trask. Married to Jeremiah II, March 11, 1672, at Salem Mass. Died in the same town during the year 1683.

"Deborah Browne was born 14 August, 1673, at Salem, Mass., the daughter of John and Esther Makepease Browne. John Browne was the son of Thomas and Mary Newhall Browne of Lynn, Mass. A 617 page Browne Genealogy of them and their descendants from 1628-1907 by Cyrus Henry Browne, contains much of historical and genealogical interest. There is also a second volume.

"Deborah Browne married Jeremiah II Meacham, 25 May, 1693, at Salem and died 3 December, 1721, at Windham, Conn. Jeremiah II, evidently remained in Salem operating the fulling mill he had received from his father, until about 1708 when he removed to Windham, Conn., but he issued several deeds to clear the various inheritances before he left.

"Jeremiah Meacham the Second's will was made in 1729 when he was about eighty-five years of age. A copy is on record books in Willimantic, Conn. It carefully separated his first wife's children or their heirs from those by his second wife.

"Jeremiah (2) Meacham's thirteenth child, (Deborah's ninth), SAMUEL (1) Meacham, born 12 July, 1712, at Windham, Conn., married Bethia Pease of Enfield, at Enfield 19 April, 1736. They became parents of SAMUEL (2) MEACHAM WHO MARRIED PHEBE MAIN, who are the ancestors featured in this record.

"Samuel (1) Meacham was of Norwich, Conn., when he married Bethia Pease. He was still living at Norwich, 21 Sept., 1743, when he and his brothers and sisters sold their shares of the Estate (that "Our Honored father Jeremiah Meacham" had left them), to their brother Joseph (b. 7 Dec., 1696, Salem, Mass.) The quit claim deed is signed, with others, by Samuel and Bethia (Pease) Meacham's first eight children: Mary Zebah, SAMUEL, Bethiah, Jeremiah, Deborah, Benjamin, Seth — born at Norwich, Conn. Their ninth child Nehemiah was born at Colchester, Conn.

"Meacham - in "Savage's Geneology Dictionary" it is stated Jeremiah Meacham of Salem, 1660, married Deborah, daughter of John Brown of Watertown, etc. and died 1695, age 81. The above Jeremiah made a will on 12 April 1694 and styles himself as "quite ancient" and about 81 years. Will proved November 18, 1695 at which time he was 82 years. Will names first wife, Margaret, deceased, and present wife, Alice. Meacham b. about 1613. Deborah born 1673, her father b. 1631."

"In further search of Meachams and Hackers, I found it was Mr. Meacham's grandson, Jeremiah, born Dec. 21, 1673 who married said Deborah, a partial account of whose family is on Salem records. I would say the grandson, Jeremiah, son of Jeremiah Jr. and Mary (daughter of Henry Trask).

Records of children as follows: According to one tradition, Hope was the only son of Joseph

Rogers, who married Sarah Cuvier (or Currier). Shortly after his marriage he joined an expedition to Port Royal, where he was probably killed by indians or French, and was never heard of afterward. JARED MEACHAM, farmer; P.O. Woodstock; born in Connecticut in 1819, Nov. 16. He is a son of Joseph and Irene (Kimball) Meacham, who were also born in Connecticut, in which they were married, and afterward removed to the state, in 1821, locating in Union Co., where they lived one year, then purchased where our subject now resides; they lived there until their decease; he died at the advanced age of 84 years; his mother, at the advanced age of 95 years. They were parents of six children, of whom four are living -- Analine Fuller, Jared, Charles and Nancy. The deceased are Joseph and Ansel. By his first marriage he (Joseph) had five children - Lydia, Sophronia, Eliza, Mary and Lucinda. At the time of settlement, the country was new, and he and his sturdy boys made the place from the very wild. Out subject (Jared) was reared on the place he now owns, and worked for his father all his life, ashe remained with his son and died in his residence. He built up a good property, though he came here with only a few hundred dollars capital. During his life he owned 176 acres of good land, and at present our subject owns 184 acres of fine land, and, as he says, free from incumbrance. He was married to Mary, daughter of Daniel Dick, of Vermont, afterward residents of Delaware Co., Ohio. Though Mr. Meacham is threescore years of age, we find him in good bodily health, and, for a man of his age, extremely lively, and in full possession of all his faculties.

By the Governor, Wilson Shannon.

Carter B. Harlan, Secretary of State.

The deed is to James B. Meacham. It should have been to James R. Meacham. He still lives on the lot on the west side of the road at the advanced age of 92 years, having been born in Montgomery county, Va., January 17, 1800. He was the son of Elijah Meacham, who was born and died in Virginia, dying at the age of 102 years of heart disease, never having been ill an hour all his life. James R. They were Charles S. with whom he now lives, Benjamin and Jas S. both deceased, Elijah E. living here, Ann Francis wife of Andrew Montgold of Oklahoma, and William living in Indiana.

When the Mt. Zion Church was organized in 1843, he deeded to it the land now occupied for a cemetery the deed being as follows:

In testimony whereof the said James Meacham and Lucinda Meacham have hereunto set their hands and seals this 27th day of December A. D. 1843. Signed sealed and delivered in presence of V. Southard and Benja. Branscom.

After many years the congregation disbanded and many are now lying in the graveyard, some are members of Grafton Chapel and a few belong to the M. E. Church of Jackson. The old church house was torn down about three years ago, and only one or two foundation stones remain. The Cemetery is not very crowded. It is sad to see it so overgrown with weeds, briers and creeping vines. On the summit of the knoll there stands a chestnut tree probably seventy years old. The Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Just across the Franklin township line on the left side of the Jackson Furnace road, south west of Jackson there rises a little knoll which is crowned by a cemetery. It is known as the Mt. Zion Cemetery. The land on which it stands formerly belonged to James R. Meacham. It was part of the Scioto Salt Reservation and he received the deed for his lot numbered 15, from Governor Shannon. It is as follows:

Wilson Shannon, Governor of the State of Ohio to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

Know ye that by virtue of an act of the General Assembly of the State of Ohio entitled, "An Act to provide for the sale of salt reservations belonging to the State of Ohio," passed 7th February 1820, carrying into effect an Act of the Congress of the United States entitled "An act to authorize the Legislature of the State of Ohio to sell and convey certain tracts of land granted to said State for the use of the people thereof" passed 28th December 1824 and for and in consideration of ninety four dollars and thirty five cents paid by James B. Meacham to Daniel Hoffman the agent for the sale of that part of said lands lying in the county of Jackson, there is granted by the State of Ohio unto the said James B. Meacham aforesaid and to his heirs and assigns forever Lot number Fifteen of Township Number Six in Range Number Eighteen, commonly called the Scioto Salt Reserve, within said county of Jackson, containing eighty one acres and ninety three one hundredths of an acre of land more or less, to have and to hold the said eighty one acres and 93-100 of an acre of land, with the appurtenances thereof unto the said James B. Meacham and his heirs and assigns forever.

After many years the congregation disbanded and many are now lying in the graveyard, some are members of Grafton Chapel and a few belong to the M. E. Church of Jackson. The old church house was torn down about three years ago, and only one or two foundation stones remain. The Cemetery is not very crowded. It is sad to see it so overgrown with weeds, briers and creeping vines. On the summit of the knoll there stands a chestnut tree probably seventy years old. Its situation is such that every storm strikes it and its broken condition reveals what hardships it has undergone. But the dead sleep on. Among them lie some of our oldest pioneers and one of them Joseph Armstrong was very prominent in Jackson's early history.

We visited the old Cemetery one Sunday afternoon in June. The day was warm and sunshiny and the cool shade of the old chestnut tree was delightful. Sitting under it, the mind traveled back to the early days when Oliver the old Revolutionary soldier who lies buried in the north east corner was a boy. Let the reader visit some quiet country graveyard on a Sunday afternoon and allow his mind to roam backward into the past and he will find peace.

Following are the statistical portions of the inscriptions on the several tombstones in the Cemetery.

William T. Richardson is one of them. He informed us that he lived two years within a half mile of Oliver's house. The day that he died he happened to be passing the house and seeing the crowd around it, he went in and saw him before he died. He thinks that Oliver left two children by his last wife, viz, Hiram who now lives near old Ophir Furnace and Emily. The house in which Oliver died was on the farm formerly owned by Edward Faught. Richardson himself is now one of our oldest citizens being 67. He was born in Virginia April 25 1825. His father removed to this county in 1832. His name was Grief G. Richardson. He first lived in a small house at the corner of Church and Main streets opposite Jones Hall. Cavett the saddler had a shop at the other corner where the Lloyd building now is. Grief Richardson died in 1840 aged 57 and is buried in the Mt. Zion grave yard. There are three of the brothers now in the county, William, James and Robert.)

Joseph Armstrong died Feb. 4, 1857 aged 77 years and 4 days. (Wm Richardson mentioned above thinks that Armstrong had four children, Stephen who died here, James who died in the west, Joseph living in Illinois and Elizabeth wife of Hunt Thornton who moved to Illinois. Armstrong was the first Director of the town of Jackson, and had it surveyed and sold the lots. He was afterwards Sheriff of the county having filled this office at three different times.

"Old" Mt. Zion Cemetery, Jackson County, Ohio Transcription

Ronda Wilburn Houston, MyMoores@aol.com, provided this transcription and says:

My mother, stepdad, and I went out to what Mom called the "Old" Mt Zion Cemetery outside Jackson and spent a few hours recording cemetery markers. I am attaching our results. A lot of the markers here are covered with honeysuckle and have weathered so much that they are practically illegible, but I have noted what I could from those. My mother's father is buried here -- William L. Moore -- along with her grandparents and a lot of their relatives. Hope this helps someone!

<< Hi Ronda,
Thanks for transcribing the Mt. Zion for posting at the Jackson Co. GenWeb site.....
I have recently found a wonderful article in the Jackson Standard-Journal newspaper of 13 Jul 1892. It tells the history of Mt. Zion Cemetery (deeded by James R. and Lucinda Meacham for use as a cemetery). I have transcribed the burials from the newspaper article and find many, many of the stones were no longer in existing when you did your readings.
If I send you a copy of the article and my transcription of the burials, would you please add it to the Jackson Co. GenWeb site?? There is even a Revolutionary War soldier buried in Mt. Zion and he is not on your list, so his stone is gone.
Thanks so much and let me know if you would be willing to do this, because I do not know how to add it to GenWeb/Jackson Co.

Thanks,

"Old" Mt. Zion Cemetery, Jackson County, Ohio Transcription

Ronda Wilburn Houston, MyMoores@aol.com, provided this transcription and says:

My mother, stepdad, and I went out to what Mom called the "Old" Mt Zion Cemetery outside Jackson and spent a few hours recording cemetery markers. I am attaching our results. A lot of the markers here are covered with honeysuckle and have weathered so much that they are practically illegible, but I have noted what I could from those. My mother's father is buried here -- William L. Moore -- along with her grandparents and a lot of their relatives. Hope this helps someone!

Think you will find Lucinda in Jackson Co. OH in 1860 and 1870 living with her parents, Andrew Mongold and Frances Meacham. A cousin in Jackson, OH is sending me copies of those census records next week.
The following:
  Andrew Mongold married Frances Meacham
    2 Mar 1846 - Jackson Co. OH
  Robert W. Hausher (error in spelling ?) married Lucinda Mongold
    23 Jul 1876 - Jackson Co. OH

Andrew Mongold owned land next door to James R. and Lucinda Meacham and they may be the parents of Frances.......unproven as yet. Andrew and Lucinda moved after the 1870 census and have not been located.
Do you have a Missouri location for Robert Hansher and Lucinda Mongold ? ?

Jacob was my grandmother's first husband after he left Lydia. She was sixte when they married. He was in his forties. They divorced (I always thought died) and she then married his son, James, who was my grandfather. Jacob Mae Belle Gates (Mongold) had one son, Riley, and James and Mae had se children. My father, William Paul is the only surviving child. He is 76 and w youngest of the children. James, his father, died when he was five.

Do you know anything about Jacob's ancestry?
Thanks so much for the information.

Hi -
A few weeks ago, I sent you some census records of the Mongold family of Jackson Co. OH. I have just found them in Daviess Co. MO in 1880 and now feel sure that your Hansher family is definitely tied to Andrew Mongold. The following:
1880 Daviess Co. MO - Salem Twp - 16 June 1880
Page 20 (page 149B) Super Dist. 7 - Enum Dist 244
162-168

Wm. H. Mongold	wm	30	farmer	OH TN VA
Mary F. "	wf	23	wife	OH PA OH (keeping house)
Ann F. "	wf	7	dau	OH OH OH
Martha E. "	wf	5	dau	MO OH OH
Andrew J. "	wm	3	son	MO OH OH

NOTE: William H. Mongold married Mary F. Troy in Jackson Co. OH on 24 March 1872

Next door to William and Mary Mongold
163-169

Andrew J. Mongold	wm	68	farmer	TN VA VA
Ann F. "	wf	44	wife	VA VA VA (keeping house)
Andrew J. "	wm	24	son	OH TN VA (works on farm)
Benjamin "	wm	18	son	OH TN VA (at home)
Margaret E. "	wf	16	dau	OH TN VA (at home)
Clarinda E. "	wf	13	dau	OH TN VA (at home)

NOTE: Andrew J. Mongold married Ann Frances Meacham in Jackson Co. Ohio on 2 Mar 1846

Next door to Andrew J. and Ann F. Mongold

Robert W. Hansher	wm	23	farmer	OH VA OH
Lucinda "	wf	22	wife	OH TN VA (keeping house)
Mirtie E. "	wf	3	dau	OH OH OH
Otha E. "	wm	1	son	MO OH OH

NOTE: Robert W. Hansher married Lucinda Mongold in Jackson Co. Ohio on 23 Jul 1876

Since all of these Mongolds married in Jackson Co. OH and moved to Daviess Co. Missouri by 1880, (and live next door to each other) I have no doubt of the relationship. I have the 1860 - 1870 - 1880 census records and would be happy to send them to you if you will send me your mailing address. Plan to order the 1900 census to see if they are still in Daviess Co. at that time.
Hope you are feeling better after your accident.

Faye -
Thanks for your reply. I am so sorry that you are under the weather from your accident.....get well soon.
Now to Lucinda....there are several of us doing research on the Meacham/Mitchem family and we have just found that Lucinda Mongold may fit into this family. We know little about Lucinda, but feel she fits into the family for the following reasons:
Andrew Mongold married Francis Meacham on 2 Mar 1846 in Jackson Co. OH. We think that Francis Meacham is the daughter of James R. and Lucinda (unknown) Meacham. The following census records:
1860 census - Jackson Co. OH - Franklin Twp - page 160 - 14 Jul 1860
749-739

Andrew Mongold	35	m	Farmer	$1000	$200	OH
Frances	30	f				OH
James	12	m				OH
William	10	m				OH
Jacob	8	m				OH
Andrew	6	m				OH
LUCINDA	3	f				OH

1870 census - Jackson Co. OH - Franklin Twp - page 28 - 3 Jun 1870
59-59

Andrew Mongold	57	mw	farmer	$2000	$600	VA
Anfrancis	37	fw	keep house			OH
Wm	20	mw	farm laborer			OH
Jacob	18	mw	"			OH
Andrew	16	mw	"			OH
LUCINDA	12	fw	at home			OH
Benjamin	10	mw	farm laborer			OH
Margaret	6	fw	at home			OH
Clara	3	fw	at home			OH

Lucinda Mongold married Robert W. HAUSHER on 23 Jul 1876 in Jackson Co. Ohio.
I have not looked at the original marriage records to see if the name is Hansher or Hausher. Will do this soon.
Those of us doing research on the Meacham family from Connecticut to Montgomery Co. VA after the Revolutionary War have amassed a ton of records over the years and have even found the Bible of Elijah Meacham which is still in VA in private ownership. The possible father of Ann Frances Meacham, James R Meacham was born in 1801 (listed in the Bible) and is a twin brother to my William Meacham/Mitchem who moved to Ohio, with his brother James R., just after the 1830 VA census.
I would be delighted to find any information concerning Lucinda Mongold Hansher and would be happy to share what we have found. Since we have just determined that Ann Francis Meacham who married Andrew Mongold is a probable family member, we are still in the "research" mode and would welcome any info.
Hope this gives you some new information and would be happy to share further findings if you let me know your mailing address so that I can copy records and mail them to you.
Get better..........

I took the 1840 census for James R. Meacham and tried to fit in family members as follows:
1840 census - Jackson Co. OH - Franklin Twp - page 10

male 5/10 - William, born ca 1833
male 5/10 - Elijah, born ca 1831
male 10/15 - James, born 10 May 1828
male 15/20 - Benjamin, born ca 1826
male 15/20 - Charles D., born 9 May 1822
male 40/50 - James R., born 17 Jan 1801 (per family Bible)

female 10/15 - could this be FRANCES Meacham Mongold, born ca 1830
female 40/50 - Lucinda, born ca 1796 (per census records)

Per the family Bible of Elijah Meacham of Montgomery Co. VA, James R. and Lucinda had the following daughters and their deaths were listed as "belonging to James R. Meacham of Ohio:
Sarah Jane, died 18 Feb 1836
Mary, died 12 Jan 1839
Lisa, died 9 Mar 1840

I do not know the date of 1840 Federal census, but if it was taken as was required by the 1850 rules, the census began on 1 June 1840.......Lisa would have been deceased by that date so would probably not be the female listed as age 10/15. Is this Frances ? ?
I found a marriage for Lucinda Mongold, dau of Andrew and Frances. Lucinda married Robert W. Hausher on 23 Jul 1876 in Jackson Co. I did not find Andrew Mongold on the 1880 OH census index, but need to try to find Robert W. Hausher.
I saw a query concerning a Lucinda Mongold and Robert HANSHER and that after their marriage (the person did not know where), Lucinda and Robert moved to Missouri. I will try to find the query again.
Also, Elijah and Elizabeth Wirt Meacham/Mitchem had an "unknown" female listed on the 1840 census of Pike Co. OH. This female was also, age 10/15. Since they married in March 1830, I have always felt that the female age 10/15 might be her daughter by a former marriage (as you probably recall, a Samuel Wirt/Wert, age 22, was living in their household in 1850 - I have always guessed it was her son by a previous marriage).
So........at this point, I would begin to place the Frances Meacham who married Andrew Mongold between James S. Meacham, born 10 May 1828 and Elijah Meacham, born ca 1831 - sons of James R. and Lucinda. But, we certainly need to find more info and proof.
Even though Frances was only about 16 when she married Andrew Mongold, I did not find on the regular Jackson Co. marriage records that anyone gave consent for the marriage. Maybe the consent records are in a separate book from the marriage records..........
Deed records in Jackson Co. would probably indicate when (or if) Andrew and Frances left Jackson Co.
Later,
Mary

Hi Mary–

I see you made some progress yesterday. Several weeks ago we knew almost nothing about Fayette County. We now most of the players and are on the way to understanding the Ohio Meacham/Mitchem clan much better. Not bad.

Let me tell you about my day yesterday. I finished checking and testing several scales in the county, had some lunch, took the film to Wal-Mart to be developed, and had a good deal of the afternoon left. Did not feel like work so I headed for Pomeroy, Ohio–home of the Meigs Library.

You had given me the information on Jacob Mungold, Meigs County, 1860 Census. I went to the index and found Jacob Mungold, MEGU 41. No problem! I went to page 41 and no Jacob. I checked a printed copy of the 1860 Census for Meigs County. Big problem-no Jacob! I went back to the 1860 Census Index–Jacob Mungold, MEGU 41. I went to the front of the index–-MEGU is Medina County, Guilford Township.

All was not lost. It was a beautiful day for a drive and I got to see the Meigs Library. They have a very small, but very nice library. Meigs and Vinton are the poorest counties in the state. They both have nice genealogy libraries, however.

On the way home I stopped at the Jackson Library, removed the attached resident local historian from the microfilm machine, and looked up Andrew Mongold, 1860 Census, Jackson Co., Franklin Twp., page 160. I will send you a copy. I see the connection to the Meacham/Mitchem Family. He lived on Mt. Zion Road between James R. Meacham and William Meacham. Summary:

Andrew	35	Farmer	Ohio
Frances	30		"
James	12		"
Willaim	10		"
Jacob	8		"
Andrew	6		"
Lucinda	3		"

Also found in Marriages In Jackson Co., Ohio 1866-1875 by Queen & Hixon:

Mongold, William H. to Troy, Mary F. 24Mar1872
[Probably Andrew's son from above]

That's it for now. Will send info. and photos early next week.
By the way, I do not have access to Medina and Jefferson Counties Census Records. Could you tell me where you get yours by mail for home use??

Jim

THANK YOU!!! I would be most interested in receiving the information! I have finally started entering family history into a program.....I am using the LDS program. I am rather slow. My left wrist now has some nerve and tendon problems also right elbow. My address is: Brenda F. Davis 1894 Lark Enterprise, KS. 67441-9058. Please let me know if you would like reimbursment for the info. you are sending me. If there is anything I can do to help with gathering of information etc. please let me know. I would need details on how to go about it but, am willing to try.

I will copy the census records and the marriage records as soon as I have a minute. Hopefully, before next Monday. Will be going into the hospital for a bit of surgery, but it is only a one-day event. If I don't get it copied this weekend, will as soon as I am out and about.

The only charge for the copies will be what you will share with me. I am unable to download on my computer (we cannot figure out the problem), so anything you share will need to be mailed to me, the old fashion way.

I am very sure that Andrew and Ann Frances Meacham Mongold are the parents of Lucinda. When I found them living next door to each other in 1880.......I felt that was pretty good proof. And, since Lucinda and Robert married in Jackson Co. OH this surely adds more proof.

Later,

Mary, Please forgive me for taking so long to reply. First my system crashed, then I was in an auto accident, I do not like the month of Feb. anymore.

Right before the system crash I received an e-mail from a lady named Madeline asking for the same type of information...but I can not for the life of me remember her last name. I am hoping you know her and can pass the info. on.

I know very little about the Hanshers, it was just this past Oct. that I discovered that was my Grandmothers last name. My information is that Robert William was from MO. and he and Lucinda lived in Jameson, located in Davies co., Mo. I believe that Lucinda died in Mo. Their children numbered 11 and the following are the names I have :Robert Roy dob 3-22-1888, Myrtle, Leona dob1-28-1899 (my grandmother), Ernest, Anna, Leitha, Russell, Ault. I do have more information that I will try and sent to you. I am not quite up to sitting up at the computer for very long.

I will send what I have on to you one way or another please keep me posted on anything you run across. I have found a couple of 2nd or 3rd cousins I will try and find out if any one has the marriage date for Lucinda and Robert to try and confirm we have the right ones.

Thanks! Faye

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that set of discs. Discs may be purchased individually or as sets.
